

Vishal Bhagat Memorial Golf Tournament

In honor of the life, compassion, fortitude, and love we now know in memories, we invite you to participate in the inaugural Vishal Bhagat Memorial Golf Tournament November 18th and 19th benefiting The Vishal Bhagat Foundation. Touch another life as we expand Vishal's desire to raise funds for Diabetes care and ultimate prevention.

Vishal Bhagat lived life fully, understanding and persevering through many difficult times as a young man with Juvenile Diabetes. Vishal found an opportunity to enlighten us with his vision to raise awareness of the disease and raise funds for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation while attending the University of Texas in Austin. His vision came forth in the idea of an inter-mural flag football tournament directed at having a great event while informing people of the disease and raising funds for the JDRF. His involvement in and dedication to a service organization in Austin assisted in making the event a success. In fact, the event is known as the "Sugar Free Bowl" and is now a significant event for the JDRF as it is held at various college campuses, including University of Texas, University of Texas A&M, University of Texas-Dallas, University of Oklahoma, and Louisiana State University. Continue the tradition, and share in the memorial of Vishal Bhagat.
